As an artist, Dani B has shown incredible strength and resilience, overcoming breast cancer in 2020. During the pandemic and lockdown, Dani B became known as the "Sea Point Balcony Singer" for her performances on her balcony, spreading joy and hope to her community while undergoing chemotherapy treatment. She became an inspiration to many and a beacon of light during a very dark time for most.

Through "Live It," Dani B shares the pearls of wisdom her journey has taught her one of them being one of self-love, encouraging listeners to "find their own direction" and "embrace their imperfections", and to be the most authentic versions of themselves. She reminds listeners to "raise their vibration", to attract the life they have always dreamed of. "I hope this song inspires listeners to let loose, have fun and dance like nobody's watching."
– Dani B
